

Carole actively and enthusiastically participated in the founding and setting up QuantFi. She graduated with honors from ESIAE Lyon Business School, majoring in marketing management.

Carole accumulates 15+ years of experience in marketing and communication functions in international industries such as wine & spirits, gastronomy, tableware, art.

She has solid HRM knowledge and extensive expertise in operating a French business and how its HR and Accounting function.

She has been recently interviewed on French B-Smart TV Channel and has been a lecturer for Master's Degree students in Entrepreneurship and Business Strategy.

Eager to discover the fields of application of the Quantum Revolution, she happily embarked on an entrepreneurial exciting journey with QuantFi.

Carole is passionate about Japan and its culture (10 year expat in Tokyo) and she is an avid taiko (traditional drum) player and performer.